Thursday, October 9th at 3:00 PM – 4:30 PM Eastern

TIME CONVERSIONS: 2PM Central / 1PM Mountain / 12PM Pacific / 11AM Alaskan

Domestic violence affects everyone – women, children and men – and everyone must be part of the solution. For the past three decades, the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (FVPSA) has been an integral part of our nation's response to domestic violence by providing funding, oversight, training, and guidance to emergency shelters, crisis hotlines, prevention programs, specialized resource centers, Tribal nations, and a wide-range of Federal partners across the United States. On this multi-media webinar, speakers will reflect on the far-reaching impact of FVPSA funding across the nation and will offer examples of how it has impacted individuals, families, local communities, tribes and services.

Speakers:

- Bill Riley, Former Director FVPSA Program
- Dr. Marylouise Kelley, Director FVPSA Program
- Culturally Specific Resource Centers
- Local Domestic Violence Programs
- Tribal Domestic Violence Programs
- State Domestic Violence Coalitions
- FVPSA State Administrators
