

ACTION ALERT!

JWI opposes the nomination of Senator Jeff Sessions for Attorney General of the United States. Sessions will not be the advocate we need to stand up for women, girls, and families. Join us now to speak out!

On January 10th and 11th, Senator Sessions will have his confirmation hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee. We must act now to make our voices heard!

In advance of the hearing, call the office of Judiciary Committee Chairman Chuck Grassley at 202-224-5225, and help us send this message loud and clear:

“I OPPOSE the nomination of Senator Jeff Sessions for Attorney General, and I urge the Judiciary Committee to OPPOSE his confirmation. Senator Sessions has proven time and again that he will not stand up for women, survivors of violence, and minorities.”

CALL NOW!
Say NO to Sessions for Attorney General!
202.224.5225

Sessions has a troubling history of voting against victims and survivors, trying to restrict reproductive rights, and opposing civil rights protections. In 2013, Sessions was one of a handful of senators to vote against the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). He has consistently opposed civil rights protections for LGBT people, and voted for numerous extreme anti-reproductive rights bills, including an unconstitutional 20-week abortion ban.

A vote for Sessions is a vote against women and families.
