WEBINARS FROM THE NORTHWEST NETWORK

Discourse at the Intersections: HIV & Violence in LGBTQ Relationships

Tuesday, May 24th, 2016 / 12 pm - 1:30 pm Pacific Time

Content: This webinar explores The Northwest Network’s understanding of power and control in intimate relationships as it relates to the context and experiences of survivors and/or partners living with HIV/AIDS. To support creative, effective advocacy solutions we will highlight the impacts, vulnerabilities, and barriers LGBTQ, HIV positive/affected individuals face as it relates to domestic violence, systems, and communities. Through discussion and interactive activities, this session seeks to create discourse on the best practices and implications for safety planning with LGBTQ survivors living with or impacted by HIV/AIDS.

Presenter: Edric Figueroa, Community Advocate, The Northwest Network

Register now!

Moving Beyond the Wheel: Understanding Domestic Violence in LGBTQ Communities

Tuesday, June 7th, 2016 / 12 pm - 1:30 pm Pacific Time

Content: This webinar will center the importance of building awareness of the context of LGBTQ people’s lives as a key component in supporting creative, effective advocacy with LGBTQ survivors. Through story sharing and examples, we will expand our understanding of the strengths, vulnerabilities and barriers LGBTQ survivors face in navigating systems and communities, as well as addressing the unique considerations for safety planning and advocacy rooted in the lived experiences of LGBTQ survivors.

Presenter: Kristin Tucker and Amarinthia Torres, The Northwest Network

Register now!

Assessing Patterns of Coercive Control, Part 1: A Basic Skill for LGBTQ DV Advocacy

Tuesday, June 21st, 2016 / 12 pm - 1:30 pm Pacific Time

Content: This session offers an exciting introduction to The Northwest Network’s tool and analysis on assessing patterns of power and control in abusive relationships. Developed over 20 years of work with LGBTQ survivors of intimate partner violence, The Northwest Network’s approach to assessment continues to be a fundamental consideration and practice for any organization hoping to create relevant, accessible support for LGBTQ individuals, as well as broadly expanding our capacity to holistically respond to the experiences of all survivors.

Presenter: Kristin Tucker and Amarinthia Torres, Northwest Network

Register now!