

Colorado Organization for Latina Opportunity and Reproductive Rights-COLOR (Denver)

Community Organizer

Description: To organize a strong base of reproductive justice supporters by educating and engaging the Latina communities in the work of COLOR. To assist with the development and implementation of the COLOR organizing plan to ensure that our community is involved and active in the political discussions about reproductive health services that affect our families. These topics include but are not limited to Comprehensive sexuality, Education, contraception access. This position will work closely in coalition with other organizations and will report to the Executive Director.

Please submit cover letter, 1 pg. Essay on a topic of your choosing around Reproductive Justice and Latinas and your resume to Lorena Garcia at lorena@colorlatina.org. Position open until filled.