

National Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Call for Discussion Papers

Be a Voice at our 11th National Conference!

July 11-14, 2004
Denver, Colorado
www.ncadv.org

NCADV's conference features a wide variety of workshops and discussion papers that reflect the diversity of the movement to end violence against women. All discussion papers must reflect the theme of this year's conference – Radical Organizing for Change. Past conference evaluations and our recent online conference survey indicate a need for more advanced workshops that appeal to advocates, activists and administrators who have been in the movement 5+ years.

The Discussion papers will be selected based on its relevance to the conference theme, current importance to the movement, innovation and national focus or widespread implication of the topic. The theme of this year's conference, Radical Organizing for Change, will bring new energy and a critical analysis to the work we do to end domestic violence. We will be honored to have you as a part of this conference and the future of the movement.

Submission Guidelines

Please submit your typed discussion paper on 8½ x 11 white paper, double spaced, using 1-inch margins and fonts no smaller than 12 pts. Workshop proposals are limited to 4 pages and discussion papers are limited to 20 pages. You may submit your discussion paper via email to nbashir@ncadv.org in Microsoft Word format, or regular mail to:

NCADV
Conference Workshop/Discussion Paper Selection Committee
PO Box 18749
Denver, CO 80218

Faxed workshop proposals or discussion papers will not be considered. Workshop proposals must also include the signed workshop proposal agreement.

Any questions, please contact Nora at (303) 839-1852 ext: 107 or via email at nbashir@ncadv.org.