

Michigan Victim Alliance

May 2, 2007

For Immediate Release:

In their effort to help develop support systems for persons suffering from traumatic stress, The Michigan Victim Alliance is providing a unique matching service for men. The Michigan Victim Alliance is a non-profit organization dedicated to the healing and protection of victims of violence, trauma and abuse.

The Michigan Victim Alliance will maintain a roster of male survivors who are willing to participate in an International network of peer support. The purpose of this service is to give survivors the opportunity to connect emotionally with others about what they are feeling and experiencing. This support system also gives survivors the unique opportunity to help others in need. (This service is not meant to be a substitute for any kind of professional help.)

Participants are screened, required to sign a form and must agree to certain conditions. All names are kept strictly confidential. For more information contact Kris Kirby at The Michigan Victim Alliance at kirbyk@edzone.net or krisk@oe.edzone.net. MVA website: www.mivictims.org
