ON DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE

BENEFIT CONCERT

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2009 4 - 9 PM

NANCY FLANAKIN

DR. PATRICIA COLE

This benefit concert is to raise funds to place an exceptional collection of materials on domestic and sexual violence in the library of the University of Texas. The collection was first started by two late great women, Nancy Flanakin and Dr. Patricia Cole. This concert is a tribute to their efforts to collect the materials and their dedication to ending the violence. These great solo artists and bands will be lending their support to the effort. Celebrate the best "new to Austin" music of the year, as chosen by Austin music commentator Duggan Flanakin of www.flanfire.com.
