Congratulations to Donna Armbrister of Torrance CA for suggesting the National Women's History Month 2016 Theme:

Working to Form a More Perfect Union:
Honoring Women in Public Service and Government

Call for Nominations for 2016 National Women's History Month Honorees

Please follow the below nomination guidelines and criteria:

- Her work and life must exemplify the 2016 theme, Working to Form a More Perfect Union: Honoring Women in Public Service and Government.
- This category can include, but is not limited to non-profit or advocacy work, public health, or legal work, elected officials, work in government agencies, military service. Your nominee's contributions should be of national significance and should amount to more than a single act or accomplishment.
- We encourage nominations of women from diverse backgrounds.
- We welcome nominations of both living and deceased women.
- You may submit only one nomination.
- You may submit nominations by completing this form or by answering all questions in the body of an email.
- All nominations must be emailed to nwhpnominations@gmail.com by June 26, 2015.
- Incomplete nominations or those that do not answer all questions will not be considered.
- Women currently serving in or running for elected office will not be considered.
- Past NWHP Honorees will not be considered.

2016 Nomination Form

(You are welcome to use your own form as long as all the guidelines are followed)

Name of Nominee________________________________________________________

Birth/Death (if applicable) ______________________________________________

Occupation or field of achievement _______________________________________

Cultural or ethnic identity _______________________________________________

If she is alive, please include her contact information

Address _______________________________________________________________

Phone Number __________________________________________________________

Email ________________________________________________________________

How does your nominee fit the 2016 theme? Do your nominee's accomplishments have a positive impact on the lives of women? Write a short historical anecdote limited to 500 words exemplifying how your nominee fits the theme of Working to Form a More Perfect Union.

All nominations, questions, and feedback should be sent to nwhpnominations@gmail.com. All nominations are due by June 26, 2015. We look forward to reviewing your nomination.

National Women's History Project
730 Second Street #469, Santa Rosa, CA 95402
http://www.nwhp.org
(707) 636-2888
nwhp@nwhp.org