

Sherman Fairchild Foundation Grants

Deadline: Ongoing

The foundation offers support to public safety programs like those which prevent domestic violence and help the homeless.

Eligible applicants vary.

Grants usually are in the $25,000 to $100,000 range.

The foundation gave $25,000 in 2004 to the Woman's Information Service (WISE) in Lebanon, NH, for marketing planning and a building fund. Founded in 1971, WISE provides services to survivors of domestic and sexual violence, primarily women and children. WISE crisis intervention advocates offer emotional support and problem-solving assistance to victims who have been physically or emotionally abused.
