Child Sexual Abuse Prevention: Implementing the "Where We Live" Curriculum with Parents

Presented by Julie Evans & Jamie Posey-Woodson

Save the Date!

Workshop Description: "Where We Live" is a primary prevention initiative that utilizes a multi-session skill building and parent engagement model to prevent child abuse. The creators of this program from the Pittsburgh Action Against Rape will walk participants through the curriculum structure and activities, share lessons learned from pilot sites, and help participants prepare to implement in their communities. Participants will be given a copy of the curriculum upon completion. Registration Coming Soon!
